Design Story

TentTube Design Lab is a company created by a group of designers and engineers who love outdoor lifestyle. It is our goal to produce the best products we can to make the camping life just a bit better and hassle-free.
 Over the past three years, we spent time, effort and expense researching and then creating the tent we need.
 We made a number of crucial improvements on the Tube "AirFrame" to make sure its strong, hold its shape in all weather and as light as possible. Finally, we have produced a product stand we wanted ourselves, so we proudly present it to you here on Kickstarter.

Technology

AirFrame makes the traditional poles a thing of the past. Additionally, AirFrame Technology provides even more stability than traditional steel poles. The tent is securely fastened by 4 included stakes to ensure stability.
 TentTube is made of high quality materials with industry-leading Ripstop technology making it the perfect choice for adventures all year round. It is 3000mm water resistant. The high quality material is breathable and windproof at 33 mph.

Feature

1. Packing easy:

When your trip is done, just use the purposely large valves to let the air out, this tent is as easy to take down as it is to set up.
 Packing a Tent has never been this easy! NO MORE POLES!

2. Smaller Lighter Easier to carry: By replacing the traditional poles with our Patented inflatable AirFrame, TentTube is 50% lighter and smaller, making it your perfect home on the go.
