Product Description

The coziness of your favorite sweater. The style and support of the latest running shoe. That's the beauty of our high-performance digital knit, made from state-of-the-art machinery. And because each is engineered to exact dimensions, there's no leftover material—and zero waste,Fern looks simple, but you won't believe just how much goes into each chair. Like our partnership with the Human Performance Institute at Western Michigan University, where we conducted comfort studies with experts in biomechanics, physical therapy, and kinesiology.
